MIKE'S MANIFESTO

The NIV in its preface promises to be contemporary English for aid in memorizing and ease of reading. Is it easier to memorize conscripted or told? Here are some examples of translation:

NASB	KJV	VERSE
Deportation	carried away	Mt. 1:11
Magi	Wise men	Mt. 2:1
Environs	coasts	Mt. 2:16
Winnowing fork	fan	Luke 3:17
Peck Measure	bushel	Luke 11:33
The Ethnarch	The governor	II Corinthians 11:32

NKJV	KJV	VERSE
Habitation	house	II Corinthians 5:2
Verdant	fat	Isaiah 28:1-4
Rivulets	little rivers	Ezekiel 31:4
Keva	linen yarns	I Kings 10:28
Pim	file	I Samuel 13:21
Syrtis Sands	quick sand	Acts 27:17
Sloops	pictures	Isaiah 2:16
Praetorium	Common Hall	Mt. 27:27

NIV	KJV	VERSE
(regulations of infectious skin Diseases and mildew)	law of leprosy	Leviticus 14:2
Skink	snail	Leviticus 11:30
Conscripted	told	II Chronicles 2:2
Supporting ligament	joint	Ephesians 4:16

We wanted to list some examples of terminology in the NIV, NASB, and NKJV compared to the KJV to highlight a reality. The supposed purpose of the new translations was to make the Bible easier to understand. This has been the battle cry of those determined to detract from the Bible study for years. We can't understand the KJV language. All the thees and thous make it hard to understand. Really? Thee and thou distract you so much that you cannot understand it means YOU?

When I first set out to read the Bible in my early teen years, I really wanted to know what it said. As I began to read, I might as well have been reading Greek. I could not comprehend what it said at all. However, the problem was not in the wording of the Bible, it was in the condition of my heart. The Word of God is not meant for sinners to understand its deep truths. Those who are saved are given understanding by the Holy Spirit. Without that Spirit guidance, the deep truths are still not going to make sense, no matter what wording is used.

More frightening to me than the simple translation disagreements are the words of those who did the translating of the new versions themselves. When I look at the quotations of these people and the history of these people, it leaves me at a real loss how Christians are not speaking out boldly against this. The reason is, not very many people are informing them about it. Again, they are hearing from their pastor that it doesn't matter what version you use. However, if these people intentionally set out to deceive people who were reading the Bible, this would definitely change the perspective in a hurry.

Lewis Foster one of the NIV committee translators said "Each person has his own beliefs. These are bound to influence his judgment to some degree. If a person claims to be entirely unbiased, he is either fooling himself or trying to fool others. Neither the ancient scribes nor the modern translator can make decisions without being influenced by their beliefs... the objectivity of man has its limitations... no matter how accomplished the individual may be, he has his blind spots and particular views... Study the translators as well as their translations... a change may be better understood by knowing the position of the translator... whether they are based upon a shift in the theological beliefs of the translator.” This is their words, not mine. This should excite us knowing one of the NIV’s translators was an avowed lesbian. I wonder what kind of view she looked at things from.

Virginia Mollenkott. In the book Sensuous Spirituality she lists a variety of methods for hearing the Spirit: “Automatic writing through a Spirit Guide, divination through the use of the I Ching and Tarot Cards, Occult book ‘A Course of Miracles’, psychotherapy and some mildly mystical experiences and finally an ongoing relationship with the spirit of her dead mother.” Now who do you think was guiding her decisions on translation?

Calvin Linton NIV Committee in the book The NIV The Making of a Contemporary Translation: “The Bible is God’s message and not His words. The Bible is the wrong side of a beautiful embroidery. The picture is still there, but knotted, blurry-not beautiful, not perfect. Christians are amusingly uninformed who presume the Holy Spirit dictated the actual words of the text of the original writers.”

Edwin Palmer Coordinator of all work on the NIV in the book The Holy Spirit “The NIV shows the great error that is so prevalent today in some orthodox protestant circles, namely that regeneration depends upon faith... and that in order to be born again man must first accept Jesus as his Savior.” “God intends that salvation be for only a few.”

While people may argue over and over again about whether the changes in language and wording make any real difference, it is impossible to say that these types of viewpoints did not make the people doing the translating very dangerous to their Christian readers. Their own words tell you so. Watch for more to come.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Thank you for your ministry. Thank you for persevering when I know you probably want to give up. Thank you for trusting the Lord no matter what happens. I pray that the Lord may recharge you and rejuvenate you in whatever ways you need so you can continue on in doing His will. Your work and the others at the Warrior's Sword gives me encouragement to know that there are others out there that feel as I do, who are frustrated with our state of our country, are frustrated with the state of our churches and many other things. It encourages me to go to the web site and read and get up dates on things that help me continue to persevere for I know there are days I want to just crawl in a cave and say okay Lord, I just want to live here in this safe little place with my family and not think or know anything about the world or all its evil. But that is not what the Lord has called us to do, so we must endure and go on. Thanks again for your time and your ministry.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THAT LIFE?

By Janet Fox

It is scary sometimes when I think of the world our kids and grandkids have coming at them. Just the changes from when I was a kid are startling. I mean, we rode our bikes all around town and never were afraid someone would hurt us or kidnap us. We trick or treated and never feared someone would poison our candy. We didn't have cell phones, wear watches; we came home when the street lights came on. We knew what time supper was and we all ate at the table and talked about our day. TV had good wholesome shows on and we didn't worry about what we might see. Maybe Fred Sanford would have his famous heart attack and swear he was going to see Elizabeth. Herman Munster would get into a situation and do that deep laugh. Grandpa Walton would explain the finer things in life to John Boy.... I mean, come on... what happened to that life? We have evolved into a world bent on lies, mistrust, greed, and revenge. A sue happy society that would rather sue you for what you worked for than to earn their own way. Everything we do now, we worry about who and what might happen. I worry for my kids and my grandkids. If it changed that much in my time... what drastic things lie in wait for them? I shudder to think.

Sometimes I agree with you. Take me home Jesus, I don't think I want to see any more of this sad, sick world. But then I see a colorful sunrise, a butterfly, or something in nature that makes me see God's hand is still where it is allowed to be. Too many people have shut Him out and created this sick place. If only more people would stand up, hold God on high, claim the Word, and pray.... maybe, just maybe... we could see a change.

It is estimated that the drilling ban in the Gulf of Mexico hoisted onto our nation by the incompetent Barack Hussein will cost us at least 23,000 jobs. Isn't that just what we need with a double digit unemployment rate?

CAN YOU DO CD LABELS?

We are asking for someone out there to help with the ministry of THE WARRIORS SWORD. We would prefer it to be someone in Indiana area for the simple logistics of it. However, we will consider the blessing of anyone's help as God leads. Please let me take a few lines to explain.

Over the months this ministry has been operating, we have taken a number of huge hits in the things the ministry was doing. One of those huge hits was when our dear friend and fellow worker Mike Repp had a massive stroke and lost much of his ability to do the things he was doing. Some of you might not know, but Mike designed the first emblem for THE WARRIORS SWORD that is still seen on the website today. It had the shield, the Hebrews 4:13 Bible verse and the Sword and the Bible.

Mike also volunteered many hours in putting our cassette tapes on to CD for us. He accomplished this with three of the series and then did labels for them for us to make available to our readers. We recognized that cassette tapes were becoming more and more obsolete and the CDs were a necessity for the ministry to be more effective.

When Mike had the stroke, we lost a great worker in this ministry and we lost the ability to make the CD labels to make them look good. Yes, I could just place a sticker on them and send them out, but we would rather make them look better, especially if you want to pass them onto non-believers to listen to.

We have purchased a CD duplicator and we also have the ability now to place the messages onto CD. However, we do not have the software and capability to make the nice labels. If you would be able to do that for us, please email me at pastormike@warriorssword.com or write us at P.O. Box 1254 Martinsville, IN 46151. We will get back to you right away with information on how we will do this. We cannot offer much pay, but we will purchase your supplies. Thank you for considering volunteering in this important work.

WHY CAN'T WE WRITE CHECKS TO WARRIORS SWORD?

There has been some concern voiced about why we now have you make out your checks for merchandise and for magazine donations to Mike Murrell instead of to The Warriors Sword. Let me take a few lines to explain.

When this ministry first started, we wanted desperately to not have checks made out to any person. Because of that, we spent literally hours at the bank and made several trips back and forth to make sure we could get a checking account set up under The Warriors Sword.

Some of you may not realize this, but under the Patriot Act, organizations can no longer just go in and set up checking accounts. There are all kinds of regulations and requirements to get this done. We sure didn't realize that until we started trying.

It seemed the logical thing to do to put the ministry under my current church ministry and make it work that way. Denominational leadership recommended that as well and the board approved it and it was done. We thought we had a good working relationship.

However, when some things happened and as we stated to you before, denominational leadership shifted directions, we had a huge issue when our ministry bank account was frozen. We were then asked by the church board to remove THE WARRIORS SWORD from under the church. We did that immediately in submission to leadership and no longer have any affiliation with any denomination or church. Frankly, we currently do not want to have any affiliation. There have already been efforts to control what we say, and if we have that affiliation, that control could be exerted. We are independent. Because of that, there are some issues legally that we have to fulfill and this is going to take some time, legal help, and finances to get this done. I do not want to spend your support to this ministry on those types of issues. If I am wrong, I accept the criticism. However, I feel like the money you send in is to use for ministry. Because of that, we have asked you to send your checks made out to my name. I then cash the checks and place the money immediately into the ministry fund which is kept at our disposal where no one has the ability to ever interfere with the ministry in this way again.

It is with regret in our hearts at THE WARRIORS SWORD that this had to happen. It was always our intention to have open relations with any church or organization that wanted to have those relations with us.

Since that time, the ministry has become healthier financially than we ever were. We were able to attain items that we desperately needed, made our workings more efficient, and you are going to see the results of all that hopefully coming soon. We feel like the Lord has blessed us tremendously for standing on what is right, even though it lost me a lot of supposed friends and made the ministry not so popular in a lot of circles. However, since that time, we have seen more people come to Christ, more people make deeper commitments, and the finances are better than they have ever been. The revivals have exploded. We believe the proof is in the fruit. Those who attacked us are falling apart and this ministry has stood strong, even in the midst of my darkest nights of my soul. PRAISE THE LORD AND GLORY TO HIS NAME.

We do plan to rectify the checking situation and we are working on that even now. However, we ask you please have patience with us and continue to make out checks to Mike Murrell when you send them in. We will then immediately place the donation into the ministry fund and use it to build the kingdom, not to build our agenda. I want to thank all of you for the kind comments you enclosed in your subscription donations. I read every one of them and kept every one of them. It is a treasure to my heart. Thank you and God bless you for your support.

IT'S A JUNGLE by MICHAEL

“WHERE IS THE CHURCH...AGAIN?”

By Mike Pflum

(We want our readers to know; Mike is a Catholic and writes from that perspective)

According to the Catholic Church, preventing abortion is amongst their highest priorities, but you can't tell that from watching them. You would think that an organization of their size, claiming to be opposed to abortion to the level they state, would be attentive to what is going on within the Obama administration. You would think they would be politically visible, shouting it down from the highest mountain tops. But alas, no. Dead silence.

There are forces actively at work to bring publicly funded abortion into fruition. They are doing so within the nooks and crannies of “ObamaCare”, despite the outright statement to the contrary by the President himself during the last State of the Union Address. Remember that one, and the big dust up because a congressional Republican interrupted the President with that famous “You lie!” statement? Well, turns out - he was! Efforts are also continuing despite the reassurance of Bart Stupak, who also sold out his supposedly staunch support for life in exchange for a powerless executive order not worth the paper it was written on.

At the end of the day, being lied to by this President and the likes of “pro-life” imposters like Democrat Stupak is no big surprise. We should be used to that from them by now. But for the Catholic Church to be sitting in silence as all this goes down is unthinkable. Has the Catholic Church completely forfeited its role as moral leader these days, or has it just decided that publicly funded abortion is a small price to pay in exchange for “ObamaCare” and all its wonderful benefits for the poor?

Abortion may well be one of the most cowardly and scurrilous acts that one human can exact upon another. Many of us find the concept of being required to pay for it to be the second most scurrilous act we can imagine. But that is precisely what is going to happen if we continue to graze like sheep in quiet ignorance of what is being heaped upon us. If you were one of those depending on the Church to keep you informed and lead you in the battle to protect the innocent, you better come up with plan “B”. The Catholic Church is as out to lunch now as they were when they tolerated the “Abortionist-in-Chief” to address the minds of Notre Dame’s graduates.

“He who is silent is implied to give his consent.” How long will you remain silent?

Take some time to examine which political leaders are likely to vote in support of you funding abortions, and steer clear come November. It will be too late to claim ignorance once they are safely in office.

The Scottish Bible Society in Scotland began an interesting effort in July. The effort was to send thousands of Bibles to Scottish courts and judges so they would have them readily available in making case decisions. What a wonderful idea! Terry Sanderson of the National Secular Society is upset about this. He calls the effort beyond absurd and this will put sharia law in the middle-east to “shame”. Really Mr. Sanderson? Sharia law teaches to beat women, women are substandard, and terrorism is acceptable to force people to be Muslims. The Bible teaches thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not bear false witness. Oh how terrible if societies were to start obeying these laws. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. What a terrible concept. The Bibles are accompanied with a pamphlet “The Bible in Scots Law: A Guide for Legal Practitioners.” It seems this is a great idea to reach out to the judges of Scotland. It also shows just how out of touch these atheists are that oppose the Bible. God bless the Scottish Bible Society in its efforts. We pray much fruit will come from it.

PRAY TODAY

By Pastor Phill Jellison

God still answers prayer today. Lee Fisher, co-founder of the Portland Tabernacle, wrote the song “He’s the Christ of every crisis, He is just the same today; He will solve your every problem if you only let Him have His way.” II Chronicles 7:15 reveals that same truth. God still answers prayer. Moses prayed for the Shikinah to go with Israel as they journeyed to Canaan. Joshua prayed 14 words and God made the sun stand still (Joshua 10:12). Hannah prayed for a son. Solomon for wisdom. Jabez asked that his borders be enlarged. Nehemiah while trying to get Jerusalem back up on its feet, asked God nine different times for help. Daniel stood before God needing revelation.

No man or woman is greater than his or her prayer life. Jesus was caught praying to His Father by His disciples and they asked Him to show them (or teach them) how to pray.

The early church was born out of prayer: Jesus told the disciples to “tarry in Jerusalem until they be endued with power from on high.” Then on the day of Pentecost, the Spirit descended upon them in sanctifying power. Why? Because they prayed. They knew they would receive nothing from God except through prevailing prayer. Acts 6:4 says they “gave themselves continually to prayer.”

Prayer will keep you from sinning or sinning will keep you from praying. The people who are not praying are straying. Of all the churches, I wonder how many people spend an hour in prayer each day. A recent Gallup Poll showed the average pastor only spends five minutes a day in prayer.

No wonder some preacher’s sermons are dead, dry and boring. No wonder some churches are struggling and closing. No wonder some church members are starving. And if your pastor needs some fresh fire, why not start praying for him? Encourage them. Slip them a blueberry pie next Sunday.

And on the flip side of the coin, God’s problem has never been with liberalism, communism, or modernism. His problem has been with “dead” church members. They are sometimes fruitless, juiceless, and useless.

When one prays to Jehovah, he wants to go to church, testify, give offerings, and help the poor. When one prays to God, his attitude changes in the home. He is easy to live with.

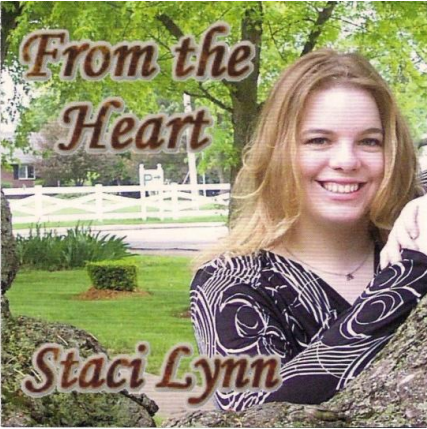

God still hears and answers prayer today. Don't give up. Start praying for your son or daughter that may be in trouble. Don't give up. You are on the brink of a miracle.

Just because you're a member of the First Church of the Deep Freeze doesn't impress the Lord. Elijah was a man “subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed.” Are you taking the time each day to pray? Are you willing to pray and fast for a great revival in our nation?

The only power that God yields to is the power of prayer. To draw the brooding Holy Spirit to your church and to our nation, it will take more than a Bible study, a gospel sing, or another series of meetings. He will respond to prayer. The prayer of repentance; the prayer of confession.

“Got any rivers you think are uncrossable, Got any mountains you cannot tunnel through, God specializes in things thought impossible, And He can do what no other power can do.”

The secret of praying is praying in secret. We've tried everything else, why not try prayer? How can God help you if you can't talk to Him?

SAY NO TO HOME DEPOT

By Mike Murrell

According to the 2010 Southern Maine Pride website, Home Depot signed on as a major sponsor of its 2010 Gay Pride events. But simply financing and marching in the parade wasn't enough for the big box chain.

Home Depot also signed on as a "festival" vendor, conducting Kid's Craft Workshops for children in the midst of loud and boisterous gay activities.

To this end, Home Depot is basically encouraging the attendance of children at events which openly expose them to transvestites, cross-dressers, and homosexual activists. When confronted by the American Family Association, Home Depot executives responded with arrogance saying we have no intentions of telling our employees they cannot march in parades. That is not what this is about. It is about the corporation throwing major support behind the gay agenda. We encourage our readers until further notice to take your business somewhere else and do not support Home Depot. You can go onto the American Family Association website and sign the petition of boycott. If you go onto THE WARRIORS SWORD WEBSITE at www.warriorssword.com and click on links, we have a link to AFA. Let your voice be heard and let your pocketbook and wallet be heard as well. We will keep you posted as we learn more. The Home Depot fired an employee for refusing to remove a "One nation under God" patriotic button from his work apron. Trevor Keezor, a Christian, said he wore the button to support his country and his 27-year-old brother, who serves in the military in Iraq.

Dozens of homosexual employees participated in Home Depot-sponsored gay pride parades and festivals. Many employees wore numerous buttons on their aprons promoting homosexuality. The Home Depot defended them by saying homosexual employees will not be prohibited "in any way" when it comes to what they do and wear. The picture here shows employees actually decorating their aprons for a Lesbian and Gay Film Festival in Seattle, Washington. So...if you wear a "One Nation Under God" button, you will be fired. If you wear a "gay" button, you get company praise.

I know I have said this before, but I can't help myself. Every time I see the death tolls continuing to climb, I keep thinking how this was all George Bush's fault and Hussein was going to fix it all when he got into office. He has been in for too many months now, and the killing continues and grows worse. Afghanistan continues to go on. We pulled out the last combat troops in Iraq. Wait for it. Wait for it. Watch and see what happens in Iraq in the coming months as the terrorists there realize they have won. The blood bath is on its way and of course it will still be Bush's fault because that is all the Democrats know how to say. The fact is, Hussein found out the same thing everyone else finds out. It doesn't matter who is in the White House, these people will never like America. Hussein, although he is a fellow Muslim, will not be able to change that fact either. The deaths have continued in Iraq, continued in Afghanistan, and Iran continues to build nuclear weapons and North Korea continues to posture for war. What has Hussein fixed? He has driven the death nail into the coffin of our economy. Just wait for it!

STIMULUS SILLINESS

By Mike Murrell

Well you are trillions of dollars in debt, $13.1 trillion and growing daily to be exact. In fact, they say it will be $23 trillion within a few years. Be assured, your money is being spent well by your benevolent government and the organizations they handed out tax dollars to. One of those places is Wake Forest University which received $144,541 of stimulus money to get 28 monkeys high on cocaine. They were doing the important work of seeing how monkeys react if they are high on cocaine. It seems to me like it is a bunch of monkeys in Washington, Obama, Pelosi, and Reid, giving out cocaine to their primate buddies to get them high.

Of course there was another great project where $141,002 was given to Montana State University. This fine institution of learning used the money to give a six week all expense paid trip to China to nine students. Their task was to study dinosaur eggs and other fossils. Of course the students found time in their fascinating and busy schedule to go hiking on the Great Wall, spend a day at the Xixi National Wetland Park, exploring several small towns, visiting the opera, and touring the Tiatai temples. All that was courtesy of you, the American Taxpayer without a single job created.

Of course then there is the $1.9 million of your money spent to listen to foreign Ants. How do you do that? Who cares when the taxpayer is paying the bill? Then Cornell University Scientists received $296,385 to study dog domestication. Researchers believe there is a common understanding of where dogs descended from, but the progression from there to Lassie is poorly understood. Think about for a moment what your family could do with $296,385. Then remember that when you walk into the voting booth in November.

ISRAEL ON THE BRINK

By Mike Murrell

On June 30th, a terrorist missile landed in a residential area of Israeli city Ashkelon while another hit a children's therapy center in Sderot the following day. Only by the grace of God, there was property damage but no injuries. A few days later, rockets fired from Egypt's Sinai Peninsula by terrorists landed near Eilat and then in Jordan as well killing one Jordanian citizen in the coastal town of Aqaba. While Egypt initially denied that terrorists were operating in Sinai, it later blamed the attacks on Hamas who it claimed snuck into the area.

The following Tuesday morning, Israel Defense Forces (IDF) squared off with the Lebanese Army on Israel's northern border. One IDF officer, three Lebanese soldiers, and one journalist were killed. IDF troops were conducting routine maintenance along the Israeli side of the border fence when they were shot at without provocation. IDF soldiers returned fire.

On Saturday August 21st, Russia loaded nuclear fuel rods into an Iranian nuclear reactor. This completed the 10 year old Bushehr Reactor project and brings the Iranian nuclear threat closer to reality. Many say it will make it less than a year away for Iran to have nuclear weapons. However, many believe they are much closer than known. The international "watch dogs" have proven to be wrong many times.

There has been a lot of uncertainty of how Israel will react to this situation. As has been usual for the Obama administration, he has shown no leadership and no guts in dealing with this very real threat. Obama is too busy trying to force Israel back to the ludicrous table of the Palestinians who will again demand Israel give up more of its sliver of land for supposed peace.

Russia says Iran has promised to send all spent fuel rods back to Russia for reprocessing. Oh, I'm sure we can trust the Russians and the Iranians to honor this promise. After all, Ahmadinejad has given us plenty of reasons to believe he is trustworthy. Ask his own people who have been slaughtered for objecting to his phony election.

We have been saying for a number of months we were on the brink of the war of Ezekiel 38. The two main players of this war are Russia and Iran. These two are now teaming up to arm Iran. If you believe that this about peaceful nuclear energy, you are more naïve than those who believe media efforts to say Hussein Obama is a Christian. Iran and Russia are working together. Russia wants oil to restore its super power status. Iran wants Israel off the map and is counting on Russia to provide the military to them to carry this effort out. Hussein is in America only worried about his image trying to push peace on Israel with Palestine who has also stated they want Israel removed from the face of the earth.

It is not a time to be scared, it is a time to be excited. Jesus is coming back. It can't be much longer. Let us say again, so you will know God's Word is clear on what is to happen. Then when it happens, if we are still here, you will know beyond a shadow of a doubt God's Word is true. God is going to fight this war on behalf of Israel and Iran, Russia, and all their buddies are going to crumble. America may well crumble with them. We continue to take more and more steps toward home. Are you ready?

Make sure you pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Pray for the Jews to recognize their Messiah. Pray for the Arabs that they will realize the deception that has been sold to them and that they will turn to Jesus. This must be our theme.

THE MAN PLEASER VS. THE GOD PLEASER

By Mike Murrell

Galatians 1:10 “For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.”

Romans 8:5-10 “For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.”

James 4:4 “Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.”

One of the things that really amazes me over and over again is how little Christians of today are concerned with pleasing God. In fact, at most churches, pleasing God is very low on the totem pole. It seems many times, pleasing God is not even on the radar screen.

I know of very few churches that really spend much time praying about anything. Most decisions are based on popularity contests or on the bottom line of the treasury reports. Most churches would profess to stand on godly principles, but it is amazing how few ever speak about anything.

Consider something for a moment. Every single day, 4000 babies are murdered in America at the hands of the abortionists. Yet very few, very few, very few churches or Christians ever speak a word about it. Where is the outcry? Where are the people that are standing on the street corners crying Repent for the Kingdom of God is at hand?

Pastor Jim Garlow of Renewing American Leadership said “we are more concerned at gaining the respect of other people than having a healthy fear for God. This is the heart of all compromise.” I felt in my spirit when I heard Pastor Garlow speak this, he is absolutely correct.

I copied the news story below: LAWRENCEVILLE, GA - A Georgia minister known for challenging the barriers between church and state is running for a congressional seat in this week's primary runoff elections. The Rev. Jody Hice is wooing Republican voters in northern Georgia's 7th District. On Tuesday they'll select a nominee to succeed retiring GOP Rep. John Linder. Hice faces Rob Woodall, Linder's former chief of staff, in the runoff. Hice has fought the American Civil Liberties Union over Ten Commandments displays in courthouses and dared the IRS to come after his Baptist church by endorsing John McCain in a sermon. Now he's turning heads with billboards that use a Soviet hammer-and-sickle to imply President Barack Obama is a socialist.

The truth is, most churches are more concerned about our 501(C)3 non-profit status than we are doing God's work. We do not even realize that these are instruments of the Government to control us and silence us and we have willingly accepted it as the norm. We don't understand the government is not benevolent in its actions. It doesn't give away tax exemptions without strings attached. Anyone dealing with politics at all understands that.

The thing that amazes me is churches and pastors have become weak wimps in the face of IRS regulations. Can anyone that reads this article share with me a point when Paul, Peter, John, Stephen, James, Luke, or any others were quoted as saying “I'm not sure we should say that, it may cost us our tax exempt government standing?” I quote Peter and John Acts 4:19-20 Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

Churches, organizations, and denominations have become all about the money. Our money is much more important to us than pleasing God. Our standing in the community is much more important than being the people God has called us to be. God is just a side issue we bring up once in a while when we need Him. He is not the passion and the inspiration of life.

I have seen this happen so often where people in the churches would say “Mike, you have to be careful so we don’t lose our tax exempt status.” Yet, I have never had anyone come up to me and say “do you suppose God would want us to be involved and speak out that we are losing every right we have as a Christian?” It is absolutely of no concern what God wants.

I do realize that I have used the verses that we led into this article before. However, it is an issue that we as Christians need to be reminded of in this age of tolerance and political correctness. We are taught over and over that we must be friends with the world. We must get along with everyone. We must not stand on any standard, but simply to allow everything without objection. It is a higher priority that man loves us than that God is pleased with us.

The Bible makes it clear, it is impossible to please man and please God at the same time. Oh, the government and the churches and the denominations won’t say that. They will say it is about pleasing them. It is about doing what they tell you is best or what they believe to be most important.

If you want to be friends with the world, you cannot be friends with God. Our priority is to be obedient to God, not to anyone else. As Pastor Jim Garlow says the heart of compromise is when we want man’s respect more than God’s. That leads us to being willing to compromise our value.

I do not know this pastor from Rev. Jody Hice that is running for office. I don’t know if he will win or lose. My reason for writing this is not to endorse him or not endorse him. I respect him that he realizes he will stand on what he feels is the right principles and invite the IRS to go ahead and come after them. He realizes it is not about whether he maintains the tax exempt status, it is about maintaining the standard God has placed before him. I can't help but have respect for someone that does that, whether I fully agree with them or not.

If the church and the ministry continue to take the attitude we have over the last 35 years, we will continue to lose every bit of ground we have. It is pretty understandable. We are no different than the world. We fight worse than the world and run off to secular courts to fight our battles. We have politics, deception and underhandedness professing it to be a part of God's Kingdom. We are more interested in picking fights with each other than standing against the murder of 4000 babies a day or standing against denominations ordaining homosexuals.

I personally am tired of this attitude within our ranks. I am sick of tolerance and political correctness dictating what we say and do. The spinelessness of people standing in the pulpits is making it acceptable for the world to continue its pathway. We are not even raising a bit of fuss.

It was much because of the fuss of ministers and the church that America fought the revolutionary war and defeated England. That is why the world has worked so hard to keep us silent now. That is why the Muslims, the Hindus, and the Buddhists do not want to the truth of the Gospel preached to their people. They know their people will reject their falseness and turn to the Gospel if it is openly presented to them. It is proven over and over again. Therefore, we are told we cannot speak the truth because the Bible says John 8:31-32 "Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

The devil knows if the truth is preached, the truth will set people free. That is why he has the church buy into the concept, the 501C3 is more important than pleasing God. Again, to be friends with the world is to be the enemy of God.

FALLING AWAY

By Mike Murrell

II Thessalonians 2:1-4 Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

I have said it before I am not nearly as concerned about what the government is doing as I am at what is happening within the church. I Peter 4:17 "For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God."

Sunday 2/12/09 was established as promote evolution Sunday. Over 400 churches in 49 states signed on to preach sermons that would help congregations understand the fact of evolution.

They want to start textbooks teaching evolution in Kindergarten because they know the moral foundation is in place by age 9. By the age of 18, a child has already determined his/her belief in Christ, the resurrection, and the tenants of Christian doctrine. However, there is no question when the statistics are considered that we are not helping our youth to establish these tenants and therefore, the education system, the media, and the atheists are taking our children away from us while the church seems unaware anything is even happening.

Only an estimated 4% of youth will remain in church when they reach adult age. Only one in seven pastors consider Sunday school to be a priority. Much of Sunday school anymore is a joke anyway with stupid curriculums that hold no relevance to anything of importance. We are not educating in Christian faith and if statistics continue as they are, by 2014-2018, we will have lost an entire generation from Christianity. If you don't believe this is happening, sit down with any group of 30 teenagers and try to talk to them about Jesus Christ and the reality of who He is. You'll find out quickly, there is no exaggeration in these statistics.

During a 45 minute message, 60 children will attempt suicide, almost 80 will run away, 20 teenagers will have abortions and over 1000 teens will take some form of narcotics. There are 400,000 churches in America and 6000 first run movie theaters, but which one is making more of an impact? There is no question what is making the impact. Children can quote off their favorite movie stars, what movies they were in, what the movies were about. Yet ask them to quote a Bible verse. I have even had parents say it was too much on the children to expect them to memorize the Bible. That was too hard. Yet that same child could quote any sports statistic, any movie plotline, or any song lyric you wanted to hear. The church has a 70 to 88% failure rate with youth.

Consider what happens when a nation loses its faith. Below are statistics of four nations. The first is the statistic of their former Christian population. The second is the statistic of their current Christian population. Please notice that three of the four of these nations are now openly antagonistic toward us.

	Was	now
Iraq	35%	5%
Iran	15%	2%
Syria	40%	10%
Turkey	32%	2/10 of 1 %

Consider England the home of some of the greatest revivals in history. England raised up some of the greatest evangelists and church leaders in history. Yet, now the nation is nearly entirely atheist. In 1940 during WWII 60% of England attended church regularly. Now, it is 3% two generations later.

Most Christian parents admit to a fear, deep down, that their kids having been raised in Christian families and having spent their childhood and teenage years in the church will nonetheless walk away unchanged. They fear that they are the last Christian Generation and that their children will depart from the true faith. That fear has become a reality.

In past years, between 55% to 66% of the churched young people have said the church will play a part in their lives when they leave home. Now only 33% of churched youth say that.

It is not that churches and Christian families haven't recognized that we're losing our young people and haven't tried to do something about it. During the 1970s and the 1980s significant numbers of Christian parents began removing their children from the public school system in an attempt to salvage their kids. The hope was that a Christian school education would somehow undergird their children with a biblical world view. Today, there are over twelve thousand Christian schools in the US, but what are the results?

85% of youth from Christian homes that attend public schools do not embrace a biblical world view. Only 6% of those attending Christian schools have a Biblical Theism Worldview. Most Christian children, and parents for that matter, do not even know what a Christian Worldview is. They assume because it is a Christian school, it is teaching a Christian Worldview and everyone that goes there are Christians. WRONG!

Young people are interested in spirituality and spiritual things, but it is their view of God and the religions they are adopting. 63% don't believe that Jesus is the Son of the One true God. 58% believe all faiths teach equally valid truths. 51% don't believe Jesus rose from the dead. 65% don't believe Satan is a real entity. 68% don't believe the Holy Spirit is a real entity.

A survey for youth asked "in the last 12 months:

Was satisfied with their ethics and character:

Christian 91%

Non 90%

Physically hurt someone when angered:
Christian 63%	Non 67%
Lied to a parent:
Christian 93%	Non 93%
Lied to a teacher:
Christian 83%	Non 85%
Cheated on a test:
Christian 74%	Non 76%

According to this study, there is no more than a four percent difference between the attitudes and actions of professing Christian youth and non Christian youth.

The obvious but nonetheless shocking truth is that we are not seeing the majority of our church youth transformed by the power of God. There are exceptions, of course, but the majority of our young people appear neither to understand who the True God is, nor the true meaning of Christianity. It is evident that the church and Christian families are failing to lead them into a transforming experience with God.

In Sodom and Gomorrah, God could not find ten righteous people. Not in the entirety of these two great cities. Luke 18:8 “Nevertheless, when the Son of Man cometh, shall He find faith on the earth?”

There has been a revolution of faith preaching, but it is not true faith. It is based on materialism and demanding from God our riches just like the prodigal son. I Timothy 6:5-6 “Perverse disputing of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth supposing that gain is godliness; from such withdraw thyself. But godliness with contentment is great gain.” Much of the ministry has bought into this stupidity that has misled and misguided millions into the pits of despair. Christians watch TV preachers daily telling them if they just had enough faith, they would never get sick and they all would be driving big Cadillacs. Much of the religious influence today is nothing more than heresy.

Then there is the blatant blasphemy: The Davinici Code tries to say that Jesus faked His death on the cross and it was all a hoax that was known to the Catholic Church for years and they covered it up. It says Jesus hid away and married Mary Magdalene and their lineage still goes on today. Recently so called archeologists supposedly found the bones in a tomb of Jesus, Mary Magdalene, and their children. See how one tells the lie and the other tries to substantiate it with another lie?

The Gospel of Judas, even presented by Christian book carriers, "This is fragments of some old text written 1700 years ago, which they are claiming proves that Judas and Jesus actually had a secret arrangement in which Judas was given access to some form of divine knowledge. A heroic Judas is here portrayed as having been Jesus confidant chosen to be told spiritual secrets that were denied to the other eleven disciples." This is now being resurrected and is another attempt, which was written three centuries after the death of Judas, to make the true Word of God into a lie and the work of the cross into a fraud.

John 12:6 tells us what kind of person Judas was: "this he said not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag and bare what was put therein."

The Associated students of the University of Oregon ASUO, has refused to apologize for an obscene anti-Christian assault in the campus newspaper "Insurgent". The March 2009 edition ran one of the strongest attacks against Christianity depicting Jesus as a homosexual. It contained a picture of Jesus on the cross with an erection. The other titled Resurrection showed a naked Jesus kissing another naked man, both sporting an erection.

Rosie O'Donnell said radical Christians are as frightening as radical Muslims. Muslims would burn the headquarters of this magazine to the ground. Christians aren't rioting in the streets and killing one another over cartoons.

In its promotional material for the program "JC", Viacom describes Jesus as a "regular guy" - rather than the Son of God - and depicts him moving to New York to "escape his father's enormous shadow." The Father is depicted as an apathetic dad virtually addicted to video games and totally uninterested in his son's life. This will soon air on Comedy Central.

Revelation 13:1 “And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his head the name of blasphemy.”

The beast will be a blasphemer by his very nature. He will stand in the temple and profess himself to be god. Matthew 24:9 “Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you, and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake.”

II Peter 3:3-5 “Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, and saying, where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning creation. For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water.”

I am amazed more and more that the world is the ones asking when Jesus will return. It is the church, ministers, and Christian institutions that have become the scoffers of the return of Christ. That is the results of Christians that have not been properly taught to stand up on what they believe in.

Let’s look at the famous Global warming. Thirty years ago, the environmentalists were warning of coming ice age. In 1975, Nigel Calder, former editor of New Scientist wrote “the threat of a new ice age must now stand alongside nuclear war as a likely source of wholesale death and misery for mankind.” Douglas Colligan wrote also in 1975 for Science Digest “At this point the worlds climatologists are agreed... Once the freeze starts, it will be too late.” This is the same attitude now, because we agree, it is fact. All climatologists are far from agreeing.

Lowell Pointe wrote in his 1976 book “The Cooling” “The cooling has already killed hundreds of thousands of people in poor nations. It has already made food and fuel more precious, thus increasing the price of everything we buy. If it continues, and no strong measures are taken to deal with it, the cooling will cause world famine, world chaos, and probably world war, and this will come by the year 2000.”

Whoops, I guess we did too good of job because now we are overheating and it is going to cause the same things. Just listen to Al Gore.

The Presbyterian Church USA (PCUSA) has become the latest in the long line of mainstream denominations that are turning away from everything righteous and holy. I have been a critic of the denominations for over twenty years. It is not out of disagreement of doctrine. Although we often do disagree with doctrine, that is not the main issue and hasn't been. I have long said we don't have time to argue over the stupidity of which doctrine is correct. What we have been seeing happen for nearly twenty years is the absolute turning away from anything biblical and more of a dictatorial attitude taking place in the denominations. We have openly talked about this for a long time.

In the recent General Assembly of the PCUSA church, they openly endorsed in many ways, a homosexual lifestyle. They have joined the Evangelical Lutheran in the attitude of welcoming non-celibate gay pastors. The Lutherans are shocked that their numbers are going down. Don't be at all surprised if the PCUSA experiences the same issue.

The division is phenomenal. The Episcopalians were banned from the recent meetings of the Anglican Church. They used to be locked into the same group, but the homosexual issue has divided them as well.

As well, the PCUSA entertained a report titled Breaking Down the Walls from the PCUSA Middle East Study Committee. This report showed doubts of Israel's right to exist. It calls Iran and Israel a similar threat to the Middle East. It endorsed a notorious document authored by anti-Israel Palestinian Leaders. Many pastors of the PCUSA spoke out against the report, but denominational leaders were determined to stay to their plan.

One no longer even needs to search for the great falling away. We can see it all around us. The results of it are devastating. The average father spends less than 4 minutes a day in meaningful conversation with his family. The results of it are devastating. We are reaping what we have sowed.

I wish I could get on my soapbox and tell you it's all going to get better. It is not. We are heading toward a world ruler who will spiral this even further than Barack Hussein has done. We are headed for really serious issues in this nation and in this world. I have said it over and over again; it scares me that I think most of us Christians are not prepared to face it. I really hope I am wrong.

You must get grounded in the Word of God and help your family to do the same. You must get grounded in your prayer life and seeking God for direction and guidance instead of trying to tell Him how to do His job. You must stay alert to what is going on and be involved in battling for what is right. Remember the Bible tells us we are to occupy until He comes. Occupy is a military term. This doesn't mean just sit on our backsides and wait for the rapture to come. This means that we occupy. You can't occupy if you do not stay informed to what is coming.

Sometimes I hate to write about these things. I would love to put out a paper telling you to go out and dance with butterflies and hug a tree. It would make everyone so much happier.

Let me use my normal analogy. If I found out that tonight a master thief was planning to come to your house and rob all your valuables and take away your family, and I didn't tell you or warn you because I thought it might make you feel bad and ruin your whole day, what kind of friend and preacher would you consider me to be? Sometimes we get sick of being a watchman on the wall. Sometimes it would be so easy to quit talking about it. However, when the thief is coming and the statistics are proving that he is already laying the ground work to take away your most valuable possessions, then we must speak and I'll just have to take the heat for it. It is so important, Solomon said it twice Proverbs 22:3 and 27:12 "A prudent man foreseeth the evil and hideth himself, but the simple pass on and are punished."

A CONQUERING MOSQUE

By Mike Murrell

So why should it even matter if they want to build a mosque in New York? There are after all hundreds of them already in the state of New York. Why would one more make any difference? Our President and his talking heads say it is a matter of religious freedom. Funny, they want to talk about religious freedom while they and their buddies at the ACLU attempt to wipe Christianity from the face of the earth. Of course, Hussein Obama does not mind that because he is a Muslim and not a Christian.

St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church was directly across the street from the World Trade Center and had operated safely in that position for a number of years. It was crushed when Tower 2 and its burning inhabitants came crashing down. St. Nicholas wanted to build two blocks from its original location. The Port Authority officials objected to its 24,000 square-foot building with a traditional grand dome that they said could not rise higher than the planned World Trade Center Memorial. Yet, the Port Authority has not said a word about the 13 story mosque. As we say, Barack Hussein only cares about the religious freedom when it is for his Muslim brothers, not when it involves anyone else. I am not Greek Orthodox, but this was a church that served its people and stood peacefully near the World Trade Center location. It was destroyed through no fault of its own. It seems their right to rebuild would be a much higher priority than a shrine to the murderers who caused the damage in the first place.

There is much more to this story than that of religious freedom. It may shock you but I don't care if they build a mosque or where they build it. It is not our job as Christians to oppose the building of buildings. It is our job as Christians to win those who are deceived to the realization that Jesus Christ is the way. Stopping this building from going up will not change a single Muslim from his belief. However, there is much more to this issue than what even the media on either side seem to talk about.

I have heard only one person in the media who stated the real issue. Others are talking about the sensitivity of the issue. My friends let me promise you, if you are counting on the Muslims to be sensitive to the hurt of Americans, forget it. Yeah, we hear about the peace loving people. Maybe that is why all over America, they went out and shot guns up in the air in celebration of the twin towers coming down. They shot guns into the air in celebration that 3000 people lost their lives. They shot guns into the air celebrating the plane that went down in Pennsylvania and numerous more Americans lost their lives. They shot guns into the air celebrating the burning of the Pentagon and even more loss of innocent lives. If you are waiting for sensitivity, you can forget it. It isn't going to come.

But this is not an issue of whether it is insensitive to build a mosque 600 feet from where the 9/11 attacks took place. This is about a religion whose entire platform is built around conquering everything, every person, and every belief that opposes it by violence. Almost always, they see violence as necessary.

One of the reasons the Muslims hate Israel as a nation so much is because of the very land that Israel inhabits. This land at one time belonged to Arabs. In the belief and teaching of the Koran, it is made clear when a land is conquered for Allah it can never be lost away from Muslim control. If it is, it is considered a slap in the face of Allah himself. Arabs are not to rest until Arab dominance is regained over the said land.

That is exactly why the Israelites giving up land for peace will never work. Arabs will never be satisfied until Israel is wiped from the map and Arabs are back in control of this land.

Let's take a look at these peace loving people that just want to teach tolerance. According to Open Doors Ministry, Since March of this year, the Moroccan Government has expelled 128 foreign Christians including 58 U.S. Citizens. These foreigners are accused of proselytizing which is illegal in Morocco. Funny, they want absolute freedom to preach their perversion, but will kill anyone who says anything different. There is no evidence the proselytizing took place, but that makes little difference to the Muslims. These accused were denied court hearings and were not even allowed to set their affairs in order.

Non-Muslims are not permitted to set foot in Mecca or Medina because the ground is too holy and we may corrupt it.

There would be no thought of allowing a church building to be built in either of these places. In fact, it is illegal for any type of religious building other than Muslim to be built in Saudi Arabia. The Muslims are not making peace, they are laughing at our so called tolerance. Not only has the Moroccan Government cracked down on foreign Christians, but they have also increased pressure on their own people. There are an estimated 1000 Moroccan Christian converts. Many of these truly peaceful people are now being interrogated, and subjected to surveillance. The Moroccan Government is evidently bent on ridding their nation of all Christian influence.

According to Be A Voice from Voice of the Martyrs for whom THE WARRIORS SWORD is an affiliate: At least four women, a man, a boy, and a girl were murdered on July 17 in Maza Village near the Nigerian city of Jos. The death toll was estimated at 10 adding to the already over five hundred of Nigerian Christians slaughtered by “peaceful Muslims”.

Pastor Artur Suleimanov who converted from Islam to Christianity was murdered by a gunman on July 15th. The pastor was killed in his car as he was leaving the Hosanna House of Prayer in Makhachkala, Dagestan by “peaceful Muslims”. Pastor Suleimanov’s church is one of the largest Protestant churches in Dagestan which is a Russian Republic bordering Chechnya.

The Taliban in Afghanistan bragged they shot and killed a team of missionaries including six Americans because they were preaching Christianity. Ten members of a medical team were shot and killed as they were returning from providing eye treatment and other health care in remote villages of Afghanistan by the murderous Muslims. He said five of the Americans were men and one was a woman. The Briton and German also were women. About ten gunmen robbed them and killed them one by one.

First of all, what happened to all the promises that the false messiah Hussein Obama was going to end all this violence once he entered office? I thought we were all going to be dancing around with the butterflies together. Second of all, where was the condemnation from a worthless leader about the senseless murder of humanitarians? The fact is, this worthless leader don’t care because the victims were Christians; infidels in his sight.

Imam Feisal Abdul Rauf will be leaving the country soon to take a multi-country trip to the Middle East at the expense of the State Department. What that means in layman's terms, you and I are footing the bill. He is supposedly going to spread great understanding between the United States and Muslim Nations. Okay, this is a guy who said the U.S. was accomplices to 9/11. He said we were responsible and helped raise up Osama Bin Laden. He said it was our sins toward the Arabs that caused these things to happen. He has refused to call Hamas terrorists. Oh, why would Hussein Obama then supply the funds for his trip to spread goodwill for America? Don't forget, this is the same America hatred spewed out by Hussein's "pastor" Jeremiah "Wrong" when Obama attended his church for twenty years but never listened to what he said of course. What Rauf will most likely be doing, even though the state department denies it, is raising the $100 million to build the 13 story mosque and community center for Islam just 600 feet away from where Muslim murderers killed 3000 innocent people.

The Cordoba House is a dream project of Rauf who says he hopes to improve American understanding of Islam and the wider Muslim World. Oh yes, he is real concerned about these relations with the American Hatred he is spewing out and using our tax dollars to fund his trips to say more.

New York Governor David Patterson, who supports the mosque said he would offer state support, something that is illegal by the way, to help them build the mosque in another location. Imam Rauf refused. Why? Because this is about being a conqueror, not about building a worship center.

Yet even naïve Christians are saying this issue is about decency and good taste. No it is not! One of the reasons we are so badly losing this battle against the Islamists is because we refuse to understand them and listen to what they say. We just assume we know what they want rather than listening to them tell us what they want. It does not take a rocket scientist to do that. What they believe and live by is stated clearly by their leaders, by their Koran and by their so-called prophet. What they want is chanted on a regular basis on their streets: "death to America; death to Israel."

The reason they refuse to build the mosque anywhere else is not an issue of good taste. It is because they consider themselves to have conquered this land for Allah. As those murderers on the jets flew into the tower, they were shouting Allah Akbar which is not Allah is great as it is reported. It means Allah is Greater. Allah is Greater than your God is what they were crying. In their eyes they have conquered the land. The ultimate way to establish that and to make sure the land is never taken from the Muslim conquerors is to build a Mosque and Islamic Community Center. In the Muslim's eyes, this will be a lasting symbol of Islam's ability to conquer America and Christianity. It has absolutely nothing to do with decency and good taste. Islam is very clear in its writings and teachings from the most radical terrorist to the most moderate doctor; the Muslim is to conquer the world. They are endorsed by their so-called prophet Mohammed to use force to accomplish it.

This "Imam" Rauf has made it clear he wants America to submit to sharia Islamic religious law. Let me tell you the wonderful things that would mean. Women would be stoned for adultery, women's testimony would be worth half of the man's as women are considered nothing more than cows to the Muslim man. Men could beat their wives and anyone who wanted to change to Christian from Muslim could be killed. Sharia law constitutes the idea of a privileged position for Islam and its adherents in society, the idea of the legitimacy of suicide bombing, the idea that violence may legitimately be visited on those who offend or 'blaspheme' Islam or Muhammad, the idea that places and people claimed by Islam can never be retaken. The stupid talking heads have no idea what is being pushed. I want you to get a clear picture of this fellow Americans. Our President Hussein Obama and his state department are endorsing this madman imam that is endorsing such laws to be pushed in America.

Now the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives Nancy Pelosi said this: "There is no question there is a concerted effort to make this a political issue by some. And I join those who have called for looking into how is this opposition to the mosque being funded." Ms. Pelosi, that sounds like a threat to use your office as a Representative of the United States to strong arm on behalf of a religion. Ms. Pelosi, if you would read your constitution for once that you are supposed to be upholding you would find you are by far overstepping your legal responsibility. One thing I can assure you, Ms. Pelosi. Those of us opposing this insanity that you and your buddy Hussein are carrying out are not being funded by taxpayer dollars as you are illegally supporting the mosque with. Ms. Pelosi have you ever heard of the Establishment Clause that speaks directly to you and your office? That isn't like the separation of church and state clause that you and your cronies made up. The establishment clause is actually in the constitution and it forbids you to use our money to establish a state religion which is exactly what you and Hussein are attempting to do. I know for a certainty that the people of San Francisco are not going to throw you out because you are their type of person. However, I do hope that the American people are wise enough to throw you out of your position as speaker so you will just become another tinkling cymbal in the backdrop of history where you belong.

Don't be duped by the talking heads of the media. This mosque is about much more than just a building or a worship center. It is about Islam making a statement that they are the conquerors and we will bow to them. If this is not stopped soon, we as Christians will be paying tribute money to Islam for the privilege of staying alive in our own country. Some say aspects of the health care bill is the beginning of this. We'll wait and see. One thing is for certain; if Hussein has his way along with his buddy Imam and his "Pastor Wrong", Islam will conquer us because the one being paid thousands of dollars to protect us has sold us out.

NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

By Mike Murrell

School is back in session in many areas and once again we are seeing it is getting harder to keep our Christian children in the public schools. The National Education Association continues its assault the very conscience of anyone with morality. The NEA is a teacher's union and teachers need to get out of it as fast as possible. There are alternatives such as Christian Educators Association International Association of American Educators. Christian teachers need to join one of these organizations.

In Helena Montana a vote was delayed for a couple months on a controversial sex education program that plans to openly teach children about same sex intercourse. However, it was only delayed and will soon be taught to children.

On the NEA's diversity calendar, 10/1 encouraged teachers to celebrate the communist revolution of China. This revolution placed Chairman Mao Zedong into power who butchered more innocent people than any regime in history. When the public became aware of this plan and raised protest, the NEA removed the planned celebration from their calendar. One of the NEA's recommended readings for their teachers is Saul Alinsky, a self-proclaimed Satanist and inspiration to Hussein Obama's socialist and progressive community organizing.

Sacramento, California school district sponsors schools that follow a philosophy going back 100 years. The Waldorf public schools, John Morse Waldorf Methods School (K-8), and the high school George Washington Carver School of Arts and Sciences. The Sacramento Unified School District is now facing a trial in federal court on allegations those schools are religious and are not eligible to receive taxpayer dollars. The schools are based on a dangerous philosophy called anthroposophy from the writings of 19th century Austrian philosopher Rudolf Steiner. His view? The universe is driven by conflict between Lucifer and the god of darkness Ahriman. Christ came to the earth as a 'son god' to balance the forces of light and darkness. The Waldorf Teachers Survival Guide states "Most of what contributes to our work as teachers- preparation work, artistic work, even meditative work, is under the guardianship of Lucifer. We can become great teachers under his supervision." Although the Waldorf System is primarily offered through private education, the demand for Waldorf public schools has grown to more than 40 across the country with two dozen in California. Please stay aware of what your children are being taught.
